Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 11/09/2004 amendment in the application of Cheung et al. for a "Method and system for providing communication control functionality at a remotely located site using a distributed feature architecture" filed 10/24/2000. This application is a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) under C.F.R. 1.114 filed on November 17, 2004. The proposed amendment to the claims and response have been entered and made of record. Applicant's argument and remark with regard to the rejection under 35 USC 103 are persuasive. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.
2. Claims 1-27 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment .
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a no obvious improvement over the prior art of record. The improvement comprises: upon login, creating one or more application feature boxes, each application feature box for performing at least one of: performing a particular communication control functionality for the at least one communication device, downloading data records from the operational database and communicating the data records to the at least one communication device, as expressly recited in the claims.
